Thanks and Bouquets to Our Local Dancers:

I and all the patients at Spivak wish to extend grateful expressions to the Sherwood and Mile-Hi folk dancers for the many enjoyable hours which they afforded us with their delightful and educational presentations. These two groups and perhaps others too will again appear at our auditorium. The last show took place during October 25th and it was a presentation of the Mile-Hi.

Surprise guests who came to particpet in this program were Jerry Joris and Jimmy Radostitz, from Ch-go.

Cantor Irving Kurz and pianist Marion Harding added color with their renditions.

Sadler's Wells Star Lithuanian Born:

Svetlana Beriosova, one of the main stars with the famous Sadler's Wells Ballet, is Lithuanian born and reared. Her father, Berzinis, was a member of the Lithuanian National Ballet. In 1947 she became the ballerina of the Grand Ballet of Monte Carlo, where her father was ballet master and her mother a costume designer. During 1948-49 she danced for the Metropolitan Ballet of England. Now she is dancing principal roles with Sadler's Wells.

Dance Schedule of Jerry Joris:

Tuesday evenings, 8:00-10:00, International House, 1414 E. 59th St. Folk Dancing.

Wednesday evenings, 8:30-10:30, Grand Crossing Park, 76th and Ingleside. Couple Folk Dances.

Thursday. Again at Grand Crossing, 8:15-10:45.
Square dancing. Everyone is welcome to all three places.

American Squares Under New Editorship:

The American Square Magazine, formerly owned and edited by Charles Thomas in New Jersey, moved to Texas and the editorship of Rickey Holden. The magazine received a new facial and invigorated treatment. The records and book sales was taken over by Folkcraft, 1159 Broad, Newark 5, N. J. News and subscriptions go to Rickey Holden, 136 E. French Pl, San Antonio 12, Texas.
$1.50 per year.

Lith Youth Typical American:

Richard Valzonis, Chicago youth of Lithuanian immigrant parents, was chosen as the "Typical American Real Boy." In 1951 Richard was selected by the "Boys Clubs of America" as the "Boy of the Year." Richard is attending at present Willbraham Academy in Massachusetts.

Toronto Dancers Visit Denver:

Four folk dancers of the late John Madsens's Group from Toronto, Canada, plus two others from Buffalo, N.
Y., visited Spivak and presented a program. The Canadians were: Margaret and Carson Whelan, Bernice Brom-by and Russ Pickering, while Frank and Jane Giori were the Buffalonians. While out west they visited Cheyenne, Rocky Mountain National Park and nature's wonders in the Colorado Springs area. At Spivak they presented a most enjoyable program for which Mrs. Druscla Ferree M.C.'d. Betty and Roger Johnson acted as hosts to all six of them and the visitors stayed at their home. The visitors and yours truly are very grateful to the Johnsons and Al Geary for their generosity and hospitality.

Dr. Shaw Ill

Dr. Lloyd "Pappy" Shaw, exponent and pioneer of the Western Square and Couple Dances, suffered a stroke of embolism during August. Fortunately, he did not suffer paralysis. Neither Dr. Shaw, nor Mrs. Shaw are feeling despondent and both are meeting this ill fortune with courage and hope. His hosts of frineds pray for his rapid and complete recovery, so that once again all may derive inspiration from his personality and instruction.

Rodney Shaw, U.W.F. Regional Director:

Rodney Shaw, native of Conway, Ark., was appointed to a full time job by the United World Federalist.
The states of Wisconsin, Minnesota and Iowa will be his sphere of action. He is the man for the job. He is a person with a friendly personality and imbued with the ideal of world brotherhood of men. Rod, with his lovely wife Mary and their two children, Mary Lea and Gerri Lea, reside now in Oconomowoc, Wisconsin.

Mr. Wm. Cramer a Mayor:

Bill Cramer, former Chicagoan, Dean at YMCA College and International House folk dancer, who, with his lovely wife Glenna now reside in Jacksonville, Ark., was elected mayor of that town. Good luck, Y'R HONOR.

Chris Sanderson Honored:

Chris Sanderson, the venerable fiddler of folk tunes and square dance caller for the past 17 years in the Philadelphia area, was honored with a banquet and dance at the Central YMCA of Philadelphia on the oc-casian of his 70th birthday. Many fans were present.
Chris is an annual performer at the National Folk Festival. Last year, when the regular Town Crier, Amos Kubelik, was unable to be at the festival due to illness, Chris likewise filled the position of Town Crier. Best of luck, Chris!

L.A. Folk Dancer Baltic Beauty:

Ruta Kilmonis, a Lithuanian girl from Los Angeles, who belongs to the Lith Folk Dance Group directed by Lucille Zaikis, was the winner of the Baltic division (Lithuania, Latvia and Estonia) beauty queen. She was one of the six most beautiful girls, dressed in national garb, and sat around a globe on a float which participated in the Pasadena Rose Parade.

Mrs. Daužvardis Outstanding Women of Chicago:

On February 20, the Women's Advertising Club of Chicago, selected Mrs. Peter (Josephine) Daužvardis as the "Outstanding Women of Chicago." Mrs. Daužvardis is a loyal friend of Viltis and the editor, and Viltis is mighty proud of the well-deserved honor bestowed upon her. She is a tireless worker in womens' activities, charitable work and for the cause of Lithuania and its people.
Without any doubt she is also the outstanding Lithuanian women, I'll venture to say, in the world. To Mrs. Daužvardis we say with all sincerity "Ilgiausiu Ir Sveikiausiu Metu" — The longest and the healthiest years to YOU.

More Polka Winners:

Helen Pius and Al Gimbutis, two members of the Ateitis Folk Dance Group won in a polka contest during the annual program sponsored by Sophie Barcus, Chicago.

Ned Wharton Appointed to Annapolis:

Eighteen year old Edwin Kirby Wharton of Fair-hope, Ala., a graduate of the University Military School of Mobile, was appointed to Annapolis. Ned is the son of Margaret Wharton, not:d Alabama musician and the Kirby Wharton, president of the Fairhope bank. To Ned we extend our sincerest wishes for high achievements during his years in Annapolis and after.

Fulbright Scholarship to Paul Gaston:

Paul Gaston of Fairhope, Ala., who was recently graduated from Swarthmore College with honors, also won the Fulbright Scholarship which enables him to attend the University of Copenhagen, Denmark, where he studies contemporary political and econmic problems. He was also selected to membership in Phi Beta Kappa, a national fraternity for honor students.

In Fairhope, Paul was graduated from the School of Organic Education, a progressive educational school which he attended from kindergarten on. He is an excellent folk dancer and attended the National Folk Festival in Philadelphia. For eighteen months he saw service in Japan in the US Army. Paul and his mother, Mrs. C. A.
Gaston issued the first Viltis while ye editor was gala-vanting through Central Alabama.

To Paul — our very sincerest wishes for all the success.

Bud Baadsgaard Wins Swiss Scholarship:

Halfdan (Bud) Baadsgaard, tall, blond, and handsome Dane from Minneapolis, was presented with a scholarship to the Federal Institute of Technology in Zurich, Switzerland. We are happy for Bud and proud of the fact that we have such brilliant young people in our midst. He sailed on the Queen Mary on September 24.

Bud attended the University of Minnesota and he is a popular folk dancer and folk dance leader. He headed the University folk dance group and many others and attended the National Folk Festival. His absence will be felt but his host of friends are happy for him.

Jay Hobgood Studies in Mexico:

Chicagoan Jay Hobgood accompanied yours truly to Mexico three years ago, and must have gotten Mexican sand in his shoes, for last year, when in the Army, he returned there during a furlough to visit Mexico again.
During that time he covered the southern Mexico states of Oaxaca, Chiapas, Campeche, and Yucatan and the world famous pyramids of Chichen Itza and Uxmal. Now, as a "free man" he returned to Mexico City to study anthropology at the university. Bien Dicho, Amigo.

Miss Constance Fisher in India:

Connie Fisher, St. Paul's active and conscientious social worker, is in India during November-December o a study tour which terminnates with a conference of the Internation Social Workers in Madras, India.

Tevina Benedict Cover Gal:

Altho Tevina Meilutē Antoinette Benedict is only fifteen months old, her beauty was already gracing the March issue of Westchester (NY) life. She acted as a model for her father's, Russell Redd Benedict, excellent and ever timely article of "Is Your Baby Safe?" The father is active in the World Federalist Movement.
Mother Meilutē Zilis was formerly the secretary of the Ateitis Lithuanian dancers and Folk Festival vet. Mei and Russ spent several years in Europe covering many countries in connection with the United World Federalist Movement.
